INTRODUCTION TO WILDERNESS FIRST AID

This presentation/discussion will contrast the differences between Urban First Aid and the First Aid required when “definitive” care is more than 30 minutes away as a result of severe weather or remote location. We will discuss “austere environment” protocols, certain “red flag” issues and dealing with finding yourself beyond the boundaries of traditional urban emergency medical services. If circumstances ever caused you to think “how would EMS reach me?” then this overview will help you decide if additional training is needed. This is not a certification course.

Ages: 14 and older

Fee: Free

Date	Days	Time	Location
October 12	Saturday	9 to 11 a.m.	Rob Fleming Rec Center

WILDERNESS FIRST AID

This 16-hour Wilderness First Aid Course is an educational resource for those involved in activities that take them beyond the boundaries of traditional urban emergency medical services. Hikers, backpackers, kayakers, canoeists, fisherman, Adventure racers, farm and utility workers, forest rangers, law enforcement, and victims of natural disaster often find themselves in situations where definitive care is delayed in excess of 30 minutes. This course also meets the requirements for organizations that require/recommend training in backcountry emergency response for almost any location. Two-year certification issued upon successful completion of class.

Ages: 14 and older

Fee: $140 Resident; $150 Non-Resident

Date	Day	Time	Location
Dec. 14 & 15	Saturday/ Sunday	8 a.m. to 5 p.m.	Rob Fleming Rec Center

‘BRIDGE’ TO ADVANCED WILDERNESS FIRST AID

This class will build on what you learned in Wilderness First Aid expanding your knowledge of evacuation, long term care and dealing with “red flag” issues. Using realistic based scenarios you will work in small groups to practice skills and leadership when confronted with an emergency in an austere environment. We will spend time in the classroom, make sure you are prepared for various weather conditions. Two year certification issued upon successful completion of class.

You must be currently certified in WFA.

Ages: 16 and older

Fee: $140 Resident; $150 Non-Resident

Dates	Day	Time	Location
Oct. 28, Nov. 4, & Nov. 11	Monday	7 to 10 p.m.	Rob Fleming Rec Center
November 17	Sunday	8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

FLY CASTING CLINICS

This class will cover basic casting fundamental and provide the groundwork for understanding fly rods and reels, basic fly types and other components of fly fishing. Upon completion, you will have a solid foundation from which to build on. It will take an additional 10-20 hours of practice before casting becomes second nature. All equipment will be provided.

Ages: 14 and older

Fee: $40 Resident; $45 Non-Resident

Dates	Day	Time	Location
September 22	Sunday	1 to 4 p.m.	Reb Fleming Park Pond
October 13

FLY CASTING PRIVATE LESSONS

This lesson is designed for someone that has participated in our Group lesson or has previous fly casting experience. It is an excellent way to build on previous casting experience while working on distance, line management and various “presentation” casts. You may bring your own equipment or use ours and may even catch a fish or two. Previous fly casting experience recommended.

Ages: 14 and older

Fee: One person- $35/hour Resident; $40 Non-Resident

Two people- $50/hour Resident; $60/hour Non-Resident

Registration: Please contact Rob Fleming Recreation Center at 281-516-7348 for more information.
